

Thursday 17 November 2011, at 4pm, Room G22/26,
Senate House, University of London, Malet St.

PROFESSOR SHERRY SIMON (CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY)

will give a talk entitled

'Cities in Translation: Intersections of Language and Memory'

Sherry Simon is Professor in the Department of Etudes françaises at Concordia University, Montreal. She is the author of several books, including: Gender in Translation: Cultural Identity and the Politics of Transmission (1996), Translating Montreal: Episodes in the Life of a Divided City (2007), and the latest, published by Routledge in September 2011 and which, an analysis of Calcutta, Barcelona, Trieste and Montreal, bears the title of this seminar.

The talk will be followed by a drinks reception generously funded by the Quebec Government Delegation.

